Republicans Will Show Their Enmity.

EPUBLICANS will gather in mass meeting at the drill shed to enter ed and passed.

The two propositions combined in one motion aroused some antagonism and the result was that the motion was defeated by eleven to six and when a moment later a plain motion to reconsider the former action was made it fell down by a vote of twelve to seven. This brought up the motion to close the nominations, and after this was done to close the franchise for the Hawalians. It was being said that the Republicans more work for him to do outside than inside, and so he would ask that the secretary cast a unanimous vote for Col. Fisher, which was agreed to. There inside, and so he would ask that the secretary cast a unanimous vote for Col. Fisher, which was agreed to. There was a similar vote given to Avery for the position of assistant secretary, and although a motion appeared, to make his salary $500 a year, with additions during campaigns, this was dropped, as there was a sentiment that the salary, although not guaranteed, would be sufficient.

KONA CASH TIGHT.

Just when every arrangement had been perfected for the advance to the Kona Sugar Company of $120,000, upon an issue of bonds of the plantation which would raise the amount of the securities of the estate to $300,000, the unexpected happened yesterday, and but has been postponed. now there seems little chance of a consummation of the deal within three and its good work are invited to be

The rock upon which the negotiations split was a letter from Claus Spreckels, through his attorney, W. M. Giffard, which informed the bank that the sugar which is to be taken off the plantation this year could not be used as

While the negotiations are not off, the people here are waiting for further advices from the coast. It is hardly believed the San Francisco refiners would wreck the plantation, yet the money will not be forthcoming unless there is a settlement made, as the banks and syndicate furnishing the money will not buy a lawsuit.

The directors of the First National bank, with Mr. P. N. Lillienthal, who is now here on a pleasure trip, discussed the matter yesterday, and while there was perfect agreement as to the loan it was decided that the bank would hold onto its $80,000 and the syndicate of coast men to their $40,000 until the way was again cleared. The desire to loan the money is still in evidence.

ST. CLEMENT'S SUNDAY SCHOOL

St. Clements' chapet is prospering these days and already needs the means of expansion or its Sunday school. There is not room enough in the chapel to accommodate the children, the numbers of whom are all the time increasing. So it is necessary to devise ways and means for a Sunday school room and to this end a meeting has been called at the rectory, corner of Makiki street and Wilder avenue for Thursday evening. This meeting as announced yesterday for Tuesday,

All persons interested in St. Clements present.

A San Jose, Cal., dispatch says: Mrs. Rafaeila Soto de Pacheco, one of the few survivors of the aristocratic Spanish families, who resided in California at the time of American occupation, tation this year could not be used as at the time of American occupation, collateral for the loan projected by the bank and the syndicate, as it was to be sent to the Western Refinery, and that advances against it had been made to the agents.

This phase of the case but the material of the first femilies of Seasies Cells. This phase of the case put the matter outside the limits of ordinary banking, and the result was the temporary suspension of the negotiations for the suspension of the negotiations for the law. It is also alleged that of the total of $50,000 rainfall which has been recorded since which is due to Spreckels. 70 per cent was embraced in an old account. The remainder was advanced upon the occupant of the recent visit of Mr. Mc. markable.
